CaseFlow — App Flow & UI/UX Design Brief

Version 2.5 · Design System, User Flows & Experience Architecture
Confidential — For Product Designers & UI Engineers

1. Design Philosophy

CaseFlow adopts a "Legal-First, Mobile-Native" design language tailored for fast-paced court environments, client meetings, and late-night office work.

Core Design Principles

Principle	Design Execution	Business Rationale
Speed Over Ornamentation	Immediate offline render from SQLite cache; shimmer placeholders	Lawyers cannot wait in courtroom basements for loading spinners
One-Thumb Ergonomics	Critical action sheets & FABs pinned to bottom 40% of screen	Courtroom usage requires single-hand operation while holding physical files
Information Density	Compact data cards, color-coded stage badges, expandable accordions	Legal practitioners need maximum context at a glance
Dark-Mode First	High contrast dark palette (`#0F172A` Slate background)	Reduces battery drain and minimizes eye strain during extended work hours
Vernacular Inclusion	Multi-lingual support (English, Tamil, Hindi, Telugu)	Serves advocates across diverse state High Courts and District Benches

2. Color Palette & Typography Tokens

2.2 Responsive Typography Engine

All typography is built on `flutter_screenutil` using the Inter & Outfit font families:

- Display Titles: `24.sp` (Bold, 1.2 line height)
- Screen Headers: `18.sp` (SemiBold, 1.3 line height)
- Body Text: `14.sp` (Regular, 1.4 line height)
- Metadata & Captions: `11.sp` (Medium, 1.2 line height)
- Accessibility Clamp: Globally bounded between `0.8x` and `1.15x` text scaling factor to prevent layout distortion on accessibility-enabled devices.
